Dressing:

- ¼ cup fresh or frozen blackberries (defrost if frozen)
- 1 teaspoon coarsely chopped shallots
- 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon balsamic vinegar
- ¼ teaspoon Dijon-style mustard

Salad:

- 4 cups lightly packed mesclun salad mix
- 2 tablespoons crumbled fresh goat cheese
- 3 tablespoons chopped walnuts

Directions

1. Place all dressing ingredients in blender or mini food processor and blend until dressing is creamy and smooth. Let dressing stand in refrigerator for up to 24 hours before using.
2. When ready to serve salad, divide salad greens between 2 plates. Add goat cheese, then drizzle 2 tablespoons of dressing over each salad. Top with chopped walnuts.

Mito-Ketoflex and dairy-free options: Omit goat cheese and prepare as directed. Substitute cashew cheese for goat cheese if desired. Note that nutritional analysis is calculated with dairy ingredients included.

Non-Starchy Vegetables: 1

- ¼ cup butter
- 1 pound fresh spinach, washed
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 8 large eggs, beaten
- ¾ cup whole milk ricotta
- ½ cup heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh basil (or ½ teaspoon dried basil)
- ¾ cup chopped plum tomatoes
- ¾ cup shredded whole milk mozzarella
- ¼ cup thinly sliced scallions

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 325° F.
2. Melt butter in large skillet. Add fresh spinach, salt, and pepper. Cook spinach until wilted. Set aside.
3. In a large mixing bowl, combine eggs and ricotta. Stir in cream and basil. Fold in spinach, tomato, mozzarella, and scallions. Spread evenly in a greased baking dish (2-quart casserole or 12-inch by 8-inch dish or equivalent).
4. Bake for 30–35 minutes or until a knife inserted near the center comes out clean. Allow to stand for 10–15 minutes before serving.

Tips: This omelet makes a nice brunch dish and includes brain-healthy spinach. In place of 1 pound of fresh spinach, you could use a 10 ounce box of frozen spinach (thawed and squeezed dry).

Mito-Ketoflex and dairy-free options: Omit ricotta and mozzarella cheese, and substitute with almond or cashew cheese, if desired. Substitute canned coconut milk for heavy cream and coconut oil for butter. Omitting dairy still results in a vegetable omelet that tastes wonderful. Note that the nutrition analysis above includes the dairy ingredients.

- 1 large bunch kale, collard greens, or bok choy, washed
- 2–3 cloves garlic, minced or cut into slivers
- 1 tablespoon olive or coconut oil
- ½ cup low-sodium vegetable or chicken broth

Directions

1. Cut out the tough center stem from the kale or collard greens; chop or slice greens into small pieces. Bok choy has no tough center so just chop into small pieces.
2. Sauté garlic in olive or coconut oil for about 30 seconds over medium heat. Add chopped greens and sauté for about 3–4 minutes more.
3. Bok choy needs no further cooking. For kale or collard greens, add broth, cover, and simmer over low heat for about 10 minutes.

Tips: For a variation, add small amounts of any of the following alone or in combination: dry chipotle pepper, balsamic vinegar, ground cumin, or curry powder.

- ½ teaspoon coconut oil or ghee
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons ground flax seed (flax meal)
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- 1 packet stevia
- ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 pinch sea salt
- ¼ cup blueberries
- 1 tablespoon chopped pecans
- 2 teaspoon butter, ghee, or coconut oil

Directions

1. Grease an oven safe 10–12 ounce ramekin with ½ teaspoon coconut oil or ghee.
2. In a separate small bowl or mug, whisk the egg with a fork. Add ground flax, baking powder, stevia, cinnamon, and sea salt. Mix until all ingredients are moistened. Add berries and pecans, and stir to mix.
3. Pour mixture into a greased ramekin. Bake in a preheated 350° F oven for 7–10 minutes. (Muffin should puff up and be firm to the touch when done, or when a tooth pick inserted comes out clean.)
4. Let cool slightly. Use a knife to loosen the muffin from the sides, and invert ramekin onto a small plate.
5. Cut in half to cool before eating. Add a small smear of grass-fed butter, ghee, or coconut oil for a bit more flavor.

Tips: This also makes a great pancake batter. It can be poured into an oiled skillet to make 1–2 small pancakes. (Optional to use 1 teaspoon local honey instead of stevia, if desired, but note that honey was not used in the nutritional analysis.)

Core Food Plan

(per serving):

Fats & Oils: 3

Non-Starchy Vegetables: 1

- 1 medium spaghetti squash
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 cups cherry tomatoes
- ¼ cup red onion, finely diced
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 2 tablespoons fresh basil, cut julienne-style
- 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar
- ½ teaspoon sea salt
- ¼ teaspoon cracked black pepper
- ¼ cup extra-virgin olive oil
- ¼ cup Parmesan cheese

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350° F. Prepare the squash by rinsing, drying, and poking it 3–4 times with a fork or knife. Bake for 45–55 minutes. It is done when a knife can be inserted easily (be careful not to overcook till too soft on the inside). Remove from oven, set aside, and allow to cool completely.
2. Cut the squash in half lengthwise. Remove the seeds by hand or with a spoon. Then take a fork and scrape the inside of the squash, filling a bowl with the “shreds.” Drizzle 2 tablespoons olive oil over the shredded squash and toss. Set aside.
3. Cut the tomatoes into quarters and set aside. In a medium bowl, mix together garlic, basil, balsamic vinegar, sea salt, and black pepper. Whisk in ¼ cup olive oil (slowly streaming in the oil while whisking). Add the cut tomatoes to the dressing. Allow to marinate for 15–20 minutes.
4. Toss the tomato mixture with spaghetti squash. Serve cold or warm (gently reheated). Toss with Parmesan cheese just before serving.

Tips: This can be made in advance, but do not toss the squash and tomato mixture together until ready to serve.

Core Food Plan

Nuts & Seeds: 1

Fats & Oils: 0.5

Non-Starchy Vegetables: 1

- 2 pounds kale
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup melted ghee or coconut oil
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice (optional)
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon sea salt
- $\frac{2}{3}$ cup raw cashews, ground
- 1 tablespoon nutritional yeast

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350° F (if baking in oven and not in a dehydrator).
2. Strip the kale from the tough stems. Rinse thoroughly and dry. Tear or chop into smaller pieces and set aside.
3. Make a dressing in a large bowl with the oil, lemon juice, and salt. Toss with kale to coat. Massage for about 1 minute to break down vegetable fibers.
4. Sprinkle kale with ground nuts and nutritional yeast. Toss again.
5. Place kale in a single layer on dehydrator sheets or baking pans. Single layers provide the best results from dehydrating or baking. If kale is piled in more than one layer it will steam and not get crispy.
6. Dehydrate for 2 hours or according to dehydrator directions for greens. If baking in oven, bake for 15 minutes until leaves are crispy and crunchy. Allow to cool completely before serving or storing in an airtight container.

Tips: These kale chips turn out best in a dehydrator. Watch closely if baking in oven, as kale can burn easily.

- ⅓ cup frozen mango, no sugar added
- ¼–½ cup ice to increase thickness, if desired (especially use if using fresh fruit instead of frozen)
- 1 cup packed baby spinach
- Stevia, to taste (optional)

Directions

1. Add ingredients in the order listed (ending with baby spinach).
2. Blend at very low speed until ingredients are mixed, then gradually increase speed to high, and blend well for 1 minute. Serve immediately.

Tip: If unable to serve immediately, omit chia or other seeds as they will gel and possibly make the smoothie less palatable for some.

- 1 tablespoon coconut oil
- ½ small onion
- 2–3 jalapeno peppers, seeds removed, diced
- 1 cup chopped Swiss chard
- ½ teaspoon sea salt
- 1½ quarts chicken stock
- 1 can (13.5 ounces) full-fat unsweetened coconut milk (about 1½ cups)
- 1 pound cooked shredded chicken (white and dark meat)

2. To this, add chicken stock (ideally, have this already heated) and remaining ingredients except for the cilantro. Bring to light boil, then lower to a simmer and cook for 5–10 minutes.
3. Serve garnished with fresh cilantro.

Tip: As a time saver, low-sodium organic chicken broth and 1 small or ½ medium-sized rotisserie chicken deboned, skinned, and shredded/chopped work great in this recipe. If you like it spicy, add more jalapeño peppers to taste.

- 2 cloves garlic
- 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 12 red pepper strips
- 1 tomato, sliced thin, and each slice halved
- 1 avocado, sliced into 6 portions

Directions

1. In a medium saucepan, cook edamame in 2 cups boiling water for about 5 minutes. Drain and set aside to cool.
2. In a large sauté pan or medium stockpot, bring 2 cups water to a boil. Add a pinch of sea salt. Place the collard greens in the water, cover, and turn off heat. Allow to sit for 1 minute. Rinse the collard leaves under cold water, drain, lightly pat dry, and set aside.
3. Put the cooled edamame in a food processor with the tahini, remaining ¾ teaspoon sea salt, lemon juice, and garlic. Blend for about 10 seconds. Add olive oil slowly through the tube while the processor is running. Add more olive oil if consistency is not smooth and creamy. Adjust seasonings, if needed.
4. On a large cutting board or on individual plates, lay out each steamed collard leaf. Evenly divide the red peppers, avocado, and hummus among the 6 collard leaves. Roll the collard leaves as you would a tortilla, and enjoy.

Tip: The edamame filling can be enjoyed as a hummus with brain-friendly cruciferous veggies for dipping, such as daikon radish, kohlrabi, and cauliflower.

Tips: Mirin is an essential condiment used in Japanese cuisine. It is a kind of rice wine similar to sake, but with a lower alcohol content and higher sugar content. The sugar content is a complex carbohydrate formed naturally via the fermentation process; it is not refined sugar. The alcohol content is decreased further when the liquid is heated.

2. Cut nori into small squares or large strips using sharp scissors.
3. In a very small mixing bowl (like a ramekin), mix oil with spice of choice and/or salt. Spread oil with spices evenly over nori sheets (use a pastry brush or the back of a spoon).
4. Place nori sheets on oiled baking sheet. Bake for 15–20 minutes. Let cool and store in an airtight container.

Tips: For a variation, use pickled ginger juice instead of oil and spices.

- 3 tablespoons toasted sesame oil, divided
- ½ pound shrimp, deveined and tails removed
- 2–3 garlic cloves, minced
- ¼ pound fresh shitake mushrooms, stems discarded, caps sliced
- 2–3 tablespoons gluten-free tamari
- ½ pound fresh or frozen broccoli, cut into small florets
- 4 ounces sliced bamboo shoots
- 1 tablespoon grated fresh ginger
- 2 teaspoons sesame seeds
- ½ teaspoon red pepper flakes
- 1 quart water
- 16 ounces shirataki noodles

Directions

1. In a large skillet or wok over medium heat, heat 2 tablespoons of the sesame oil. Add the shrimp, garlic, shitake mushrooms, and tamari sauce, and cook until the meat is fully cooked (about 4 minutes) stirring often. If the pan becomes too dry, add some water. Remove from wok and set aside.
2. Turn up heat to medium-high. Add the remaining 1 tablespoon of sesame oil to the wok. Add the broccoli, bamboo shoots, ginger, sesame seeds, pepper flakes. Lower heat to medium and stir until the broccoli is crisp-tender (about 4 to 5 minutes).
3. While the broccoli is cooking, bring 1 quart of water to a boil in a large saucepan. Rinse the shirataki noodles in a colander under cold running water for about 15 seconds and drain. Add the noodles to the boiling water and cook for 3 minutes. Drain the noodles and transfer to the wok with the vegetables. Add the shrimp, mushroom, and garlic mixture to the noodles and vegetables. Stir over medium-high heat for another 2 minutes to heat through.

Tips: Quality shrimp comes from sustainable sourcing that limits catching of other species of fish. Best picks: Pink Shrimp from Oregon, Spotted Prawns from British Columbia or Pacific Northwest, and Gulf Shrimp from the Gulf of Mexico.

Core Food Plan

Fats & Oils: 1

- 4 hard-boiled eggs
- ¼ cup low-sodium, gluten-free tamari
- ¼ cup rice wine vinegar
- ¼ cup brewed green tea

Directions

1. Make the hard-boiled eggs: Place the eggs in a pot and cover them with at least an inch of cold water. Bring the water to a boil, turn off the heat, cover the pot, and let the eggs sit for 7 to 10 minutes. For a slightly-soft-in-the-middle yolk, cook for 7 minutes. If you like your yolk firmly cooked, let the egg sit for 10 minutes. Pour out the hot water and run the eggs under cold water until cooled. Peel after the eggs are completely cooled.
2. In a small bowl, combine tamari, vinegar and brewed green tea. Place in a saucepan and bring to a simmer over medium heat. Add hard-boiled eggs and use a spoon to roll them around in the mixture until the eggs are a uniform cappuccino-brown color.
3. Remove the eggs from the pot and let cool slightly before eating.

Tips: After purchasing the eggs, keep them in the refrigerator for at least a week; older eggs are much easier to peel after being hard-boiled. The prepared eggs will keep in the refrigerator for 1–2 days.

Non-Starchy Vegetables: 3

- 1 pound zucchini
- 3–4 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 8–10 baby bella or crimini mushrooms, sliced
- 2–3 garlic cloves, minced
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh basil
- ¼ teaspoon sea salt

2. In a large skillet over medium heat, heat 2 tablespoons of the oil. Add the mushrooms and garlic and cook for 2–3 minutes.
